

1. Words

habitat n. _____

organism n. _____

adaptation n. _____

predator n. _____

prey n. _____

nocturnal adj. _____

endangered adj. _____

contaminate v. _____

2. Practice

A Night at the Wetland

Choose the best word for each blank.

Every spring, a biology class visits a wetland near the school. The wetland is the natural (1) _____ of frogs, turtles, birds, and many kinds of insects. Every (2) _____ there, from the smallest insect to the largest bird, depends on clean water.

The students arrive after sunset because many of the animals are (3) _____: they rest during the day and look for food after dark. A heron, a large (4) _____, walks slowly through the shallow water. The small fish near the surface are easy (5) _____ for this bird. One frog has green and brown skin that matches the leaves; this color is an (6) _____ that helps it hide.

Last year, oil from a nearby road began to (7) _____ the water, and several fish died. The students also learned that one kind of turtle in the wetland is now (8) _____: only a few hundred are left in the whole state.

(1) A. predator · B. habitat · C. adaptation

(2) A. organism · B. offspring · C. habitat

(3) A. endangered · B. contaminated · C. nocturnal

(4) A. prey · B. predator · C. habitat

(5) A. prey · B. predators · C. habitats

(6) A. organism · B. offspring · C. adaptation

(7) A. contaminate · B. conserve · C. protect

(8) A. nocturnal · B. endangered · C. indigenous

3. Use the Words

Write

Write three sentences about an animal you know. Use at least three words from the list. Underline the subject and circle the verb in each sentence.
